Re: Plastic Pails
Plastic Bottles

Dear Valued Customer:

Our suppliers of plastic bottles and pails have recently passed on resin increases that are being driven by supply and demand issues. As a result, U.S. Container will increase our pricing to you for these items by approximately 4.5% for all shipments made on or after July 23, 2007.

We are currently stocking up on these items and encourage you to place your purchase orders for delivery prior to the July 23rd increase.

Further increases are already being discussed and we will keep you posted on all new developments. We are anticipating new increases for the months of July and August and continue to work with our suppliers on your behalf to minimize the impact these increases may have on your business.

We appreciate your business and the opportunity to be your
